Moorecroft Stewardship Committee Report

June, 2013

Community Activities & Fund-raising:

The Invasive Plant Removal Training Session - CANCELLED

The Coastal Invasive Species Committee session at Moorecroft Regional Park on Wednesday, June 5th was cancelled as we did not have the minimum number (10) to participate.

 To help with removal of invasive plants in our community, please come and cut broom on the hillside below Nanoose Place, Wednesday, June 5th at 10:00.

Bring your own loppers and work gloves.

Email jograham5@gmail.com or just come by to help.

A Crabfest is being hosted by Kim and Trish Mauricks of Northwest Bay Ranch on July 20th from 11:00 - 5:00

The Moorecrofters will provide volunteers to help with the event.

NW Bay Ranch will make a donation to Moorecroft Regional Park.

Here is how you can help:

1) Volunteer at the Crabfest:

Event tasks will range from traffic control to beer and food servers and beyond.

Work at our Moorecrofters' table selling fund-raising merchandise and sharing information about Moorecroft Park.

2) Spread the word about the Crabfest:

Encourage your friends to come!

Encourage your friends to volunteer with you!!

If you are available to volunteer, please e-mail vlknight@telus.net ASAP!

Check out Art In The Garden and Nanoose Edibles Farm Day- July 20/21 weekend.
